THE VILLAGE NEWS

YOUR VILLAGES • YOUR COUNCIL • YOUR COMMUNITY

WINTER 2026/27

BIG NEWS. LOCAL VOICES. YOUR COMMUNITY.

Welcome to your village newsletter! Find out what your Parish Council is working on, how you can get involved and what is happening at Foxholes Community Hall.

YOUR PARISH NEEDS YOU!

COUNCILLOR VACANCIES

There are vacancies on Foxholes with Butterwick Parish Council. Want to help make a difference locally? Contact the Clerk to find out more about becoming a councillor.

COME ALONG & HAVE YOUR SAY

PARISH COUNCIL MEETINGS

Meetings are open to the public. Planned dates: 18th Jan, 15th Mar, 17th May, Meetings start at 7.30pm in the small room in Foxholes Community Hall. Agendas and minutes are available on the Council website.

WHAT IS YOUR PARISH COUNCIL DOING?

Planning, highways, village matters and community projects — this is where we share the decisions and work that affect Foxholes and Butterwick.

Christmas Light switch on and Carols

Join us around Foxholes Christmas tree for the light switch on and carols 5th December 2026 6.30pm

Get your Christmas celebrations off to a brilliant start! Come and join your neighbours and meet members of your Parish Council at our Christmas Light switch on followed by tasty mince pies, tea, coffee and mulled wine.

Egdon Drilling for Gas Planning Application

The application may be considered by the North Yorkshire Planning Committee on Tuesday 8 December. This is provisional; confirmation is expected on 1 December. The Council will share an update once confirmed.

YOUR IDEAS MATTER

Is there an issue you would like the Council to consider?

Get in touch with the Clerk or attend a meeting.

✦ SEASON'S GREETINGS ✦

Wishing everyone in Foxholes & Butterwick a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!
